Work closely with the other managers to do this and return these forms to Head Office as soon as possible for the purpose of reference writing, which is done centrally. Staff appraisal forms must be signed off by both the Academic Manager and Teacher.

Job Description - Academic Manager

- You are to help monitor student numbers weekly and correlate those against staff requirements, staff contracts and the possibility of laying off teachers when numbers fall. Ideally, you are to inform teachers if their contract is being terminated for any reason at least a week beforehand. Such a decision will be taken in consultation with the Centre Manager and the General Manager.
- Read, review and react to the weekly student evaluation forms in order to continually maintain an improve standards across all academic areas.
- Ensure all teachers fulfil their contractual duties, are prepared for each assigned class and are in the correct classrooms at least 5 minutes before the scheduled start time.
- Ensure that all teachers are prepared, having planned their classes in advance and not leaving photocopying or other tasks to the last minute.
- Retest students who request a level change and ensure that all paperwork is updated according to the outcomes of these tests.
- Organise the classrooms, furniture and facilities available to the teachers in order to maximise their potential. Check all powered items are functioning correctly and instruct teachers on how to use them.
- You are responsible for all academic resources. It is essential that these are returned in the same manner they were delivered and checked against the inventory provided by Head Office. Regular audits will be performed throughout the course.
- Regular briefing of Academic Director/Assistant regarding any concerns

Administrative Duties

- Ensure that all teachers correctly complete all necessary paperwork. These need to be checked and filed by yourself.
- You are required to attend regular management meetings to discuss occurring issues such as student welfare and behaviour, arrivals and departures, use of facilities and resources and other matters regarding the overall smooth running of the centre.
- Liaise closely with the administrator to create and maintain accurate class lists, registers, fire registers, reports, certificates and classroom allocations.
- Organise the testing and level placement of the students and allocate them to class according to their age, level of English, sex and nationality.
- All computer data is to be organised in a logical way so it can be downloaded by Head Office at the end of the course. The Academic Manager Handbook has further instruction on this point.
- At the end of the summer you will submit a report covering the strengths and weaknesses of any part of the academic programme and any other factors by which it has been effected, together with any future recommendations. Late submission of this report will result in a delay of the performance bonus being paid.

General

- Read and refer to the Academic Manager Handbook before and throughout the course and adhere to Concorde International's operational procedures.
- You should read both the Safeguarding Policy and the Health and Safety Policy and report any incidents appropriately whilst ensuring that the teachers do likewise.

Remuneration

Remuneration for this position is from £590 per week. Returning staff may receive an additional payment as agreed by the Academic Director. Payment will be made monthly into your bank account. Accommodation and food are provided in residential centres only, unless otherwise approved by the General Manager

Academic Managers will accrue paid holiday entitlement at 5.6 weeks pro-rata to be either taken off during your contractual period or at the end of your contract.

The management induction, held a week or so before the start date of the centre, is also paid at the above rate pro-rata.

Summer centres are very busy places and there may be duties to perform in addition to those detailed above. Flexibility and common sense are fundamental attributes for this position. As this is a managerial position, you will be required to sign a waiver form which confirms that you are willing to work more than 48 hours per week if required to do so.

Reports to: Academic Director

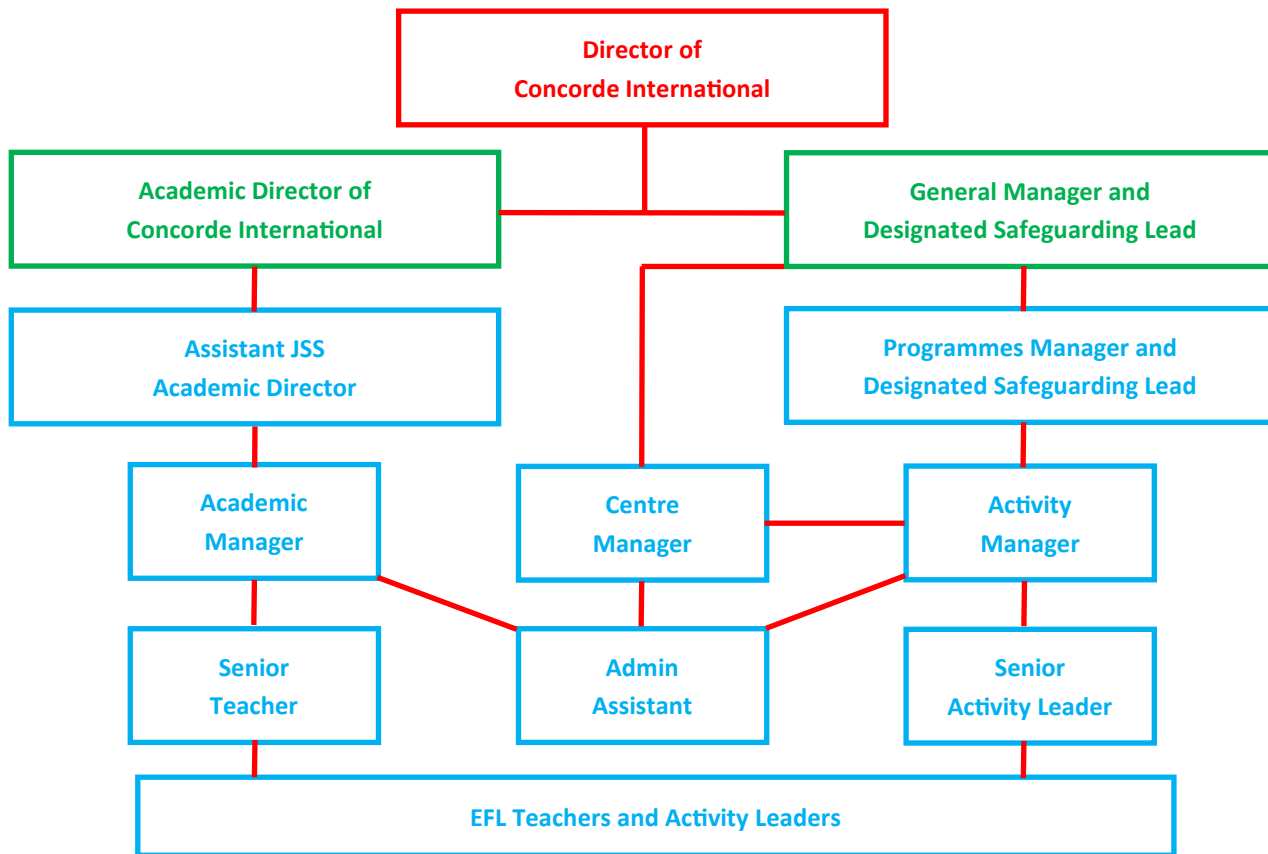

Location: Bath and locations in Kent
